A Galaxy of Galleries

Some 70 galleries in the Saint-Germain neighbourhood are opening up their doors for Art Saint-Germain-des-Prés this month showcasing exceptional objects and pieces and putting on special exhibitions for this art show that has been held in this gallery-laden neighbourhood for over 20 years. Diverse mediums are all on the agenda ranging from figurative painting to sculpture, arts from faraway lands, photography and drawings. The Galerie Claude Bernard, the Galerie Alain Le Gaillard and the Galerie Le Minotaure will be presenting collectively the works of Eduard Steinberg, the 20th century Russian artist while the Galerie Claudine Legrand will be bringing out for the event a painting by the leading contemporary artist Philippe Vasseur. Meanwhile, the Galerie Pièce Unique in its two exhibition venues is presenting the intriguing sculptures of Laure Boulay in a show entitled Brave New World and Variations.

From May 18 through to June 3

*Maps and information are available at the Eglise Saint-Germain-des-Prés
